

Kimberly McLean

Described as a fireball, yet a humble handmaiden; Elder Kimberly McLean was anointed from the womb to win souls for the cause of Christ! Kimberly began her journey with Christ at the age of 15 while attending Williams Memorial C.M.E Church under the pastoral care of Robert J. Williams Jr in High Point, NC. Elder McLean's matriculation through the Guilford County Schools prepared her to soar at North Carolina Central University- where she obtained her undergraduate in May 2008.

It was during this time she received the infilling of the Holy Ghost, identified the anointing and calling on her life to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ; under the didactic ministry of Bishop Pamela Herndon. On May 2, 2008; Kimberly preached her initial sermon and was a faithful disciple of Greater Life Fellowship Church for 15 years where she served as Bishop Herndon's administrative assistant and also served as the Pastor of Administration. Currently, Elder Kimberly Mclean is obtaining her Masters in Business Administration.

Transitioning back to the triad, she is a proud member of New Jerusalem Cathedral under the leadership of Bishop Kevin Williams in Greensboro, NC. Kimberly is the author of a compilation of books entitled, Life Without Church, SEEK, DREAMS and "WORTH." She sincerely believes and clings to the power of the Holy Ghost manifested through prayer and by true deliverance. Undeniably she has been called to this generation for such a time as this!
